» KNOW WHAT YOUR BUSINESS IS WORTH

If you are buying or selling a business, planning its succession, or involved in a legal dispute, you need a specialist to establish an accurate assessment of value. A professional business valuation may also be needed for matters related to gift and estate tax planning and compliance, employee stock ownership plans, mergers and acquisitions, S-corporation conversions, intangible asset/goodwill impairment testing, eminent domain/condemnation actions, marital dissolutions and buy/sell agreements.

» HOW WE CAN HELP

At REDW, we have a department dedicated to business valuation, forensic and litigation services. In addition to being certified public accountants, team members who practice in this area have obtained other specialized certifications, including the designation of Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) awarded by the American Society of Appraisers; Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA) bestowed by the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts; and, Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) specialty designation awarded by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Our professionals have performed hundreds of business valuations and related financial advisory services for businesses in a wide variety of industries ranging from small owner/operated businesses to enterprises with annual revenues exceeding $500 million. Our team members often provide expert witness testimony when valuation matters are part of a dispute.

» RESULTS

Our services will be tailored to your needs, ranging from consultation and simple calculations of value, to comprehensive valuation reports. Our business valuations are conducted and prepared in conformance with strict professional standards. Furthermore, our valuations are regularly submitted to and withstand the scrutiny of federal and state courts, arbitrators, trustees, the Internal Revenue Service and other regulatory bodies.
