

REDW STORY

More than 50 years ago, two accountants set up a small office in Albuquerque, NM with the goal of delivering superior service by incorporating creativity, integrity, accountability and respect for clients into their practice. The type of leadership this small firm provided to individuals, businesses and organizations it served laid the foundation for the 130 person firm that is known today as REDW The Rogoff Firm, one of the largest and most respected certified public accounting and business consulting firms in the southwest.
