

tax services

Whether you need help staying in compliance with filing and payment requirements or you want to make better decisions that improve cash flow while reducing risk, REDW offers unparalleled tax services for businesses. Since our founding in 1953, REDW tax professionals have served as trusted advisors to clients throughout the southwestern United States. Our tax expertise and client-centered approach help business owners and managers remain compliant, make solid business decisions, and plan for the future with smart tax strategies.

YOUR STRATEGIC BUSINESS ADVISOR

REDW provides accounting and tax services to a variety of closely held and multi-state companies, as well as individuals, family groups, and trusts and estates. We have deep expertise in a wide range of industries, including construction and real estate, banking, hospitality, restaurants/franchises, wholesale and retail, as well as professional services, such as physicians and medical practices, architects, attorneys and engineers. With REDW as your tax partner, our skillful, informed team is your strategic business advisor—building an enduring and mutually beneficial relationship with you. We offer:

Consulting and Planning – REDW tax professionals know how to get up to speed quickly with your tax situation, learn about your needs, and develop a proactive plan that ensures optimal results and compliance with all regulatory requirements. Our services include: corporate tax planning; dissolutions; estate planning; mergers and acquisitions; premarital and divorce tax planning; retirement tax planning; succession planning; tax projections; and 1031 exchanges and reverse exchanges.

State and Local Taxation – Let REDW state and local tax (SALT) experts serve as your in-house resource to keep up with the latest tax laws while also alerting you to new, tax-saving opportunities and potential pitfalls. Our experienced SALT specialists know how to help you manage your state and local tax responsibilities so they contribute to your cash flow and your bottom line. REDW professionals are skilled in business income and franchise tax; state sales and use tax; property tax; credits and incentives; and state voluntary disclosure.

Tax Preparation – We help clients minimize their tax burden while maximizing growth, equity and cash flow. Our priority is to help businesses and individuals navigate the complexities of properly planned and executed tax preparation services. These include: estate and gift tax returns; fiduciary and gift tax returns; individual, corporate and partnership returns; and retirement plan returns.
