

financial education websites for tribes

Contact

Paul Madrid
505.998.3249
pmadrid@redwstanley.com

Americans are in financial crisis as greater numbers of families struggle to stay afloat. Consider these frightening facts:

- Personal finance is not taught in most schools.
- Consumer debt is at a staggering level and growing.
- Retirement plan participation is declining, and withdrawals from retirement plans are up.

HOW WE CAN HELP

REDW Stanley provides customized websites for Tribes, created exclusively for their members, with financial education programs covering such topics as:

- Being a smart consumer
- Budgeting
- Bank accounts
- College considerations
- Managing credit
- Investing
- Retirement Plans
- Insurance
- Home ownership

The programs are supplemented with links to financial planning information, tools and tribal resources. In addition, we can offer seminars, workshops and one-on-one sessions on nearly any financial topic.

WHY CHOOSE REDW STANLEY?

Our team of experienced CPAs, Certified Financial Planners and Chartered Financial Analysts has the financial experience and the communications skills to educate your tribal members on financial topics. There won't be any sales pitches because we don't sell products. Our presentations and the materials we provide will always be objective, unbiased and informative.